

AGED WOMAN FOUND IN BENNING MARSH

She Left Son's House in Evening and Spent Night Wandering.

Her clothes covered with mud and wet with dew, Mrs. Margaret Gilbert, seventy-eight years of age, mother of Policeman Henry Gilbert, of the White House squad, who had been missing since yesterday afternoon, was found about 5 o'clock this morning wandering in the marsh near the Benning bridge. Although dazed and unable to give a lucid account of her movements during the night, Mrs. Gilbert was apparently suffering from no physical ailment. She was taken to the Casualty Hospital.

One of the employees of the District dump, Twenty-sixth street and Benning road, was on his way to work, when his attention was attracted by a woman in the marsh a few hundred feet from the bridge over the eastern branch of the Potomac. A woman was waist-deep in the mud, and it was with difficulty that the District employee made his way through the marsh. The police of the Ninth precinct were notified, and Mrs. Gilbert taken to the Casualty Hospital in a police ambulance. The doctors say she will be able to leave the institution in a few days.

Mrs. Gilbert spent the day at her son's home, 1101 Twenty-fourth street, and about 3 o'clock started for her home, 226 1/2 street northwest, saying she intended making a few purchases before going to the house. At a late hour last night she had failed to return.

Policeman Gilbert was notified of his mother's absence and a general alarm was sent out for the aged woman. Searching parties were sent along the Potomac and through Rock Creek Park.

"BOOK DAY" IS BEGUN BY HAMLINE CHURCH

Hamline Methodist Church and Sunday school, Ninth and F streets northwest, are introducing a new feature into their work. It is called "Book Day." The idea is, at the close of the winter season of each year, to invite members and friends of the church and school to contribute to their library such books as the givers are able, personally, to recommend to others for their literary or other merits.

The contributors are asked to bring or send their books to the church or school Saturday or Sunday, May 2 or 3. A "Book Day Celebration" will be held Sunday evening, at which time, besides the usual church services, there will be special music by the quartet choir, and platform addresses, dealing with the value and importance of good reading, by Mark A. Watson, the superintendent of the Sunday school, Mrs. Dr. E. L. Parks, of the Howard University, and the pastor, the Rev. Charles E. Guthrie.

Latimer, Miss Leeds was the accompanist.

GEORGE ARLISS WILL BE STAR

WILLIAM TROWBRIDGE LARNED. GEORGE ARLISS.

"The Devil," An Uncommonly Original Play, to Be Produced.

A newcomer in the dramatic field is William Trowbridge Larned, whose adaptation of the Hungarian comedy, "The Devil," has been accepted by George Arliss for production in the fall.

Mr. Arliss, for several years leading man with Mrs. Fiske, and one of the foremost portrayers of character parts in this country, is to head his own company next season. He has been anxious to find a play which would exploit his abilities, and he is entirely satisfied that Mr. Larned's adaptation of "The Devil" meets his peculiar requirements.

This play, by Molnar Ferenc, was first put on in Budapest, where its success was so pronounced that it is now playing in Berlin, Rome, and Paris. Mr. Larned made his adaptation from a translation direct from the Hungarian by Alex. Konta, formerly of Budapest, and now a stock broker of New York.

The character of "The Devil" is semi-supernatural and the cynical and ironic misadventure of the part are said to be exactly suited to Mr. Arliss' powers of expression. The play itself is uncommonly original in theme and development.

Mr. Arliss, who is a great favorite in Washington, was seen here several months ago in Mrs. Fiske's production of "Rosmersholm."

HANDEL-BUST FUND RAISED BY SINGERS

A concert and ball under the auspices of the United Singers' Society were given last night in National Rifles Armory to raise funds for a granite pedestal for the heroic bronze bust of Handel presented to the society several years ago.

The societies which participated in the concert were the Arlon, under the direction of Emil Holer, the Germania Maennerchor, under the direction of Emil Christiani, and the Saengerbund, under the direction of Henry Xander. Each sang several choruses in excellent style and were enthusiastically applauded. One of the features of the program was the violin playing of Miss Elsie Rauer, a young girl of twelve, who gave evidence of remarkable talent. The other numbers were a trio by Miss Helbig, Miss Biebel, and Mrs. Lehnhardt; soprano solo, Miss Helbig; piano solo, Miss Mabel Getman, and soprano solo, Mrs. Eva Patt.

Following the concert the dancing began.

HUNT OF WEEKS REVEALS WILL LEFT BY W. NAILOR

After vainly searching for weeks to find a will, and having given up the hope that there was one, a document dated November 3, 1884, was found in an old safe in the livery stable of the late Washington Nailor.

Under the will the widow, Mrs. Berry P. Nailor, receives the personal estate and a life interest in the realty. At her death the property is to be shared between her two sons, Mrs. Mary Clark, of Denver, Col., and Mrs. Elizabeth Trimble, of this city. When hope of finding a will was given up, letters of administration were taken out by Mrs. Nailor. The court will now be asked to cancel these papers, and admit the will to probate.

Two Dozen "Maerzen," or "Senate," $1.75. Bottle Rebate, 50c.

Two Dozen Heinrich's "Lager," $1.50. Bottle Rebate, 50c.

We're More Careful

—In conducting this brewery than the most exacting housekeepers are in managing their own kitchens. Cleanliness in its strictest meaning, not in the household sense, is insisted upon throughout.

We not only employ filtered water, but even filter the air that reaches "MAERZEN," "SENATE," and "LAGER." While aging, the beers repose in glass-lined, air-tight vats—from which they are run by means of hermetically sealed pipes direct to Sterilized Kegs and bottles. Elaborate as are these precautions, they are not sufficient in our estimation—we Pasteurize "MAERZEN," "SENATE," and "LAGER" as a final safeguard.

Can you advance a single argument for drinking ordinary beers, when such perfect brews as Heinrich's cost you no more?

On Draught and in Bottles for Home Use.
